Good job for getting A3 out.

A CME day is scheduled for Saturday December 12th from 8am to 4:30pm. If interested go to nvac.cme@gmail.com. Other EMS sessions will be offered in January and February.

There is a list of those EMS responders whose certifications will expire in 2016.

Please try to get certified 2 months prior to expiration.

We need coverage for Saturday December 19 during the Santa Run. Also looking for coverage for Christmas and New Year's Day.

EMS drill on December 14th will be open forum to discuss multiple issues.

Would like to thank everyone for their support over the last year. We had more calls this year than any other year and special recognition goes to Asst. Chief Baker, Lt Magyar, Ernie Leclercq, Ricky Studwell, and Kevin Riley our top 5 responders who made a combined 497 calls this year so far. A special thanks to Jim Mangi, who although has the title of Asst. EMS Director has been a true force behind the progression of the EMS component of the SHFD.

As usual contact John or Jim for comments or concerns.
